

~ DON'T MISS THIS SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY ~

College Application Camp for students entering the senior year of high school.

August 17 & 18 (9:00am-3:00pm, each day)
September 17 & 24 (9:00am-3:00pm, each day)

What can you expect from this camp?

Under the direction of David W. Clark, Ed.M., Director of College Admission Planning at the Center for Psychological Services, you will:

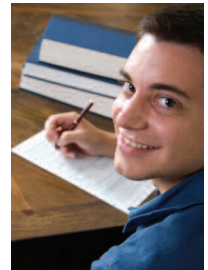

- construct a comprehensive college application strategy
- create a personalized college application planning timeline
- prepare for required college application essays
- structure a working list of colleges for application that fit your strength and passion
- practice for college visits and interviews
- begin future thinking by completing an interest inventory.

What will you take home?

Within a week of the completion of the camp you will receive a written comprehensive College Application Strategy report incorporating your transcript and your test scores with the work you did in the camp to create a college admission planning timeline and an individualized working list of colleges for application.

You also receive College Search Now's guarantee to coach you in managing the deadlines included in your planning timeline.

Space is limited and filled on a first-come, first-served basis upon receipt of a deposit by check.
